

REPUBLICAN—1914
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1914

MAYSVILLE, KENTUCKY, MONDAY, MARCH 30, 1914.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

PROPORTION.

In college life it would appear
Eleven kick and thousand cheer;
But life itself is found more dear;
While thousands kick, eleven cheer.

MARRIAGES

Mr. W. H. Ridd, 54, farmer, from Ohio, and Mrs. Bertha Marshall, 39, of Mason county, were married yesterday by Rev. J. E. Reed at his residence.

FOR HER TROUSSEAU

Eleanor Wilson Makes Several Purchases In New York.

New York, March 27.—Miss Eleanor Wilson, daughter of the President, spent several hours today shopping in New York. She made several purchases for her trousseau.

LET UNCLE SAM GIVE YOU THE FACTS

Government reports show the steady output of coal during the last few years has made the dealers push for wider markets. We are going to get more trade—your trade—by giving you a greater value for your money. You will never get out of debt unless you buy wisely.

The New Edison Diamond Point Disc Phonograph

Shown at J. T. Kackley &amp; Co.'s

ITS FEATURES—No needles to change. Perfect tone. Automatic stop. A new tone-modifier, adjusted by a simple touch, gives any degree of softness or loudness of tone. All other records can be used. Every sound, syllable and word is perfectly distinct. In singing, the human voice is reproduced without any squeaky mechanical defects. It seems the singer is before you. In instrumental music, every instrument, in solo or combination, is absolutely reproduced. Keep your old records; they will sound better on the new Edison, better than they ever sounded to you before on any other instrument. Come in and hear them.

All new designs in Wall Paper and Bugs at HENDRICKSON'S.

Eugene Grammi, a 17-year-old boy, is held as a suspect in connection with the murder of Miss Lydia Beecher, teacher in a country school at Poland, N. Y.

KNOCKED DOWN BY AUTO.

Saturday afternoon as the Flemingsburg Mayville auto bus was rounding the corner at Market and Second street, it struck and knocked down Mr. Thomas Brewer of Flemings county.

He luckily escaped with only a few bruises.

MIKE BROWN'S "FARMERS' EXPOSITION."

The greatest and the mother of all industries is farming. The farmer is the primal producer. Mike Brown supplies everything needed by the up-to-date farmer, and on Monday, April 6th—next Monday, at his big Mayville plant, he will have his Grand Opening—It's strictly a "Farmers' Exposition," and it will pay all to take a day off and attend. See advertisement.

KING AGAIN CHOSEN

Former Mayville Teacher Is Again Elected Superintendent of Bellevue Public Schools.

W. P. King was re-elected superintendent of the Bellevue Public Schools at a meeting of the Board of Education of that city Friday night. The vote was unanimous.

The superintendent was lauded by the officials for his excellent services in placing the Bellevue public schools among the best in cities of the fourth class in Kentucky.

Prof. King is a Mason county man, and a former efficient teacher in the Mayville schools.

He is also Vice-President of the Kentucky Educational Association and is recognized as one of this State's leading educators.
